DADDY

I knew this day would finally come, when you would no longer as young. But Daddy saw the seed you planted within me.

You taught me valuable lessons, staying prayerful to keep me strong. You taught me right from wrong.

I sit back and smile about the brave and fearless race you fought.

But, now your time has come Daddy, you've been a wonderful man a prayerful man. I can close my eyes and see your loving face and there will be no other that could take your place. You're no longer here to hold my hands, but through the love and guidance you've provided I know that I will be able to stand.

I Love You Daddy!!

Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth: and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt; and serve ye the LORD. And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose you this day whom ye will serve: fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

Joshua 24:14-15
